MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: IAC-D-70

The FBI representative on IAC-D-70 is Mr. Meffert W. Kuhrtz who will cooperate with you in the survey. However, FBI cannot agree flatly in the survey proposal without knowing the extent of it. I told Mr. Kuhrtz, who has been engaged in liaison activities with the Agency for a long time and whom I know well, that it seems to me it would be difficult to define the extent of the survey at this time before getting into it, and I proposed that you and he work together and at such point that you felt FBI was not providing adequate information and refused to go further, the problem might then be referred to the appropriate higher authorities. He agreed to this and it seems to me that this arrangement has much more merit than trying at this time to satisfy J. Edgar Hoover on exactly the extent of the survey when this would be difficult to do in detail at this point.
